DEMOCRATS RALLY TO KEEP MAZET AT HOME.

With the Aid of Citizens Who Declare That "Platt's Little Boy" Does Not Fairly Represent Them, They Are Confident of His Defeat.

That it is the intention of the New York Democracy and the Citizens' Union to spare no effort to prevent the return of Robert Mazet to the State Assembly, was made clear last night at one of the largest gatherings seven held to ald in the defeat of a candidate for the Assembly.

At least four thousand voters crowded into St. Nicholas Garden, at Sixty-sixth street and Columbus avenue. At an overdow meeting leld in the street outside, and other thousand gathered and cheered the speakers. There was plenty of enthusiasm, and the Democrattle campaign managers declared themselves delighted.

The purpose of the gathering was to urge the election of Percy M. Stewart as Assemblyman from the Nineteenth Assembly District, and Francis W. Aymar as Alderman, and above all to defeat Assemblyman from the Nineteenth Assemblyman from the Robert of the Citizens Union presided, the City Comptroller reserved the Brooklyn Bemocracy and several members of Tammany were speakers. It so happened that the more prominent men at the meeting entered the hall in such order as to produce a striking dramatic effect. Wille John Dewitt Warmer, the chairman, was speaking, the band heading the big parade came in and of course, business had to be suspended for several minantes.

After Mr. Warmer had proceeded a little further, Percy M. Siewart, the Assembly candidate, was observed nudging his way toward the platform. Immediately a view of the contempt of self-with and the crowd relied itself hourse.
